

“We need to be very clear about what we want from yoga. If we want physical practices in order to feel good, they are available. If we want relaxation techniques in order to release stress and tension, they are also available. Do we need to stop there, or can we continue? We can continue and that should be our aim.”

Paramahansa Niranjanananda Saraswati